Sheryl,
 I really
 hate to write lies
 but I guess I have too!
 You are a real sweet, kind
 and grand person in the class of '66. The thing I like in you are the things you are the best of. Best of luck in everything you attempt
 and always keep that good personality that you have.

DELPHI

JEFFERSON HIGH SCHOOL

DELPHOS, OHIO

Many bridges are crossed as we proceed through our school years.
In this book, we hope to show some of the bridges which prepare us for our future lives. Let us remember our high school days as

"Crossing the Bridge to Knowledge."

MISS ADELAIDE BENNING

DEDICATION

We, the class of 1965, with a deep feeling of honor and respect are very proud to dedicate the 1965 Delphi to Miss Adelaide Benning. In all her years of teaching at Delphos High School, her instruction, encouragement, and guidance have led many a student to a successful life in the commercial world. We, as students, wish to thank her for her faithful assistance in all our endeavors. May this dedication serve as a lasting tribute to a very devoted lady.

“Today We Follow, Tomorrow We Lead”

The graduating class of 1965 has not only quantity but quality and accomplishment. After twelve years of fun and toil, pleasure and hardship, our class stands on the threshold of entering a new world, leaving the relative security of our high school days. We will enter this new environment not totally unprepared. In our years in high school we have gained invaluable experience which we can call on later in life.

We took a big step along the road of experience as we entered high school as “scrawny” freshmen. In this year we learned what activities really are. The girls were inducted into the G. A. A. and Y-Teens. The G. A. A. initiation was something never to be forgotten, with the girls wearing dad’s boots and shirt and mom’s skirt upside down as well as her lipstick smeared all over. There were great opportunities for the boys to participate in sports of all kinds—football, basketball, baseball, and intramural games. The boys showed their eagerness and ability by winning the Allen County Tournament in basketball.

The boys also gained a chance to be socialites by escorting the girls to the Y-Teen Dance. Here, too, the word “work” entered our vocabulary as an everyday term. Latin and Algebra meant homework every night.

As we entered the sophomore year the class had gained security and a heavier schedule. Biology reigned as the girls favorite subject. The dissecting assignments would thrill the feminine section of the class to no end. Moreover; Mrs. Oetzel began the tremendous job of mellowing our voices. D-Club initiation came to several in the class during this year. The boys were a sorry sight, having indescribable attire and faces covered with lipstick and cork.

“Burning the midnight oil” was the favorite expression in our junior year. All the formulas in chemistry class added up to one thing—hard work. The Junior Class play was a great success inspite of the tragic events of November 22. The latter part of the year was spent in preparing for the Junior-Senior Prom. “It’s Almost Tomorrow” showed the imagination, ingenuity, and cooperation of our class.

At last the year we had so long awaited arrived. The Class of ’65 was now the senior class and proud of it. The class set examples to all others concerning scholarship, leadership, sportsmanship, and service. The Senior Play, “The Green Bough” is considered among the best ever presented. It is now the Seniors turn to enjoy the prom as the honored guests.

Now it is time for the class of ’65 to leave the halls of dear D. H. S. As we fit ourselves into the caps and gowns, all our memorable experiences will pass before our eyes. We all will feel more than a little regret to be separated from each other and from the school. But the class of ’65 is determined to succeed in the outside world as it has at Jefferson High.

Organ- izations

The Bridge to Leadership

National Honor Society

To gain membership in the National Honor Society, an aspirant must show the outstanding traits of scholarship, leadership, character, and service. To become a member of this organization is one of the highest honors one can achieve.

The Delphos Chapter of the National Honor Society, which was organized in 1943, holds an impressive candlelight ceremony each year to induct new members. The main service performed by the Society is the operation of the cloak room at basketball games.

Society Of Books

"May I have the new National Geographic?" This is one of the most familiar calls that plagues the student librarians. The librarians maintain a card catalogue, furnish magazines to students, and take care of the library.

The Welch Memorial Library was established in 1928 and has been growing rapidly ever since. The Society of Books is an organization of twenty-one girls under the supervision of Mrs. Wieging.

The groups' social event this year was a pizza-party, where the librarians received their library pins.

Girl's Athletic Association

The members of the Girls' Athletic Association, under the direction of Mrs. Strayer, shared many enjoyable moments this past year. The first activity of the year was initiation, when the Freshmen girls were forced to endure black eyes, crazy clothes, and a great deal of embarrassment. Soon the active members were busy earning points toward their letter by participating in volleyball, basketball, and baseball intramurals and by selling popcorn at basketball games. The main social event of the year was the annual G.A.A. Banquet, at which time all the athletes at Jefferson were honored. The Girls' Athletic Association ended its' activities for the year with a picnic at Ft. Amanda.

Y TEEN

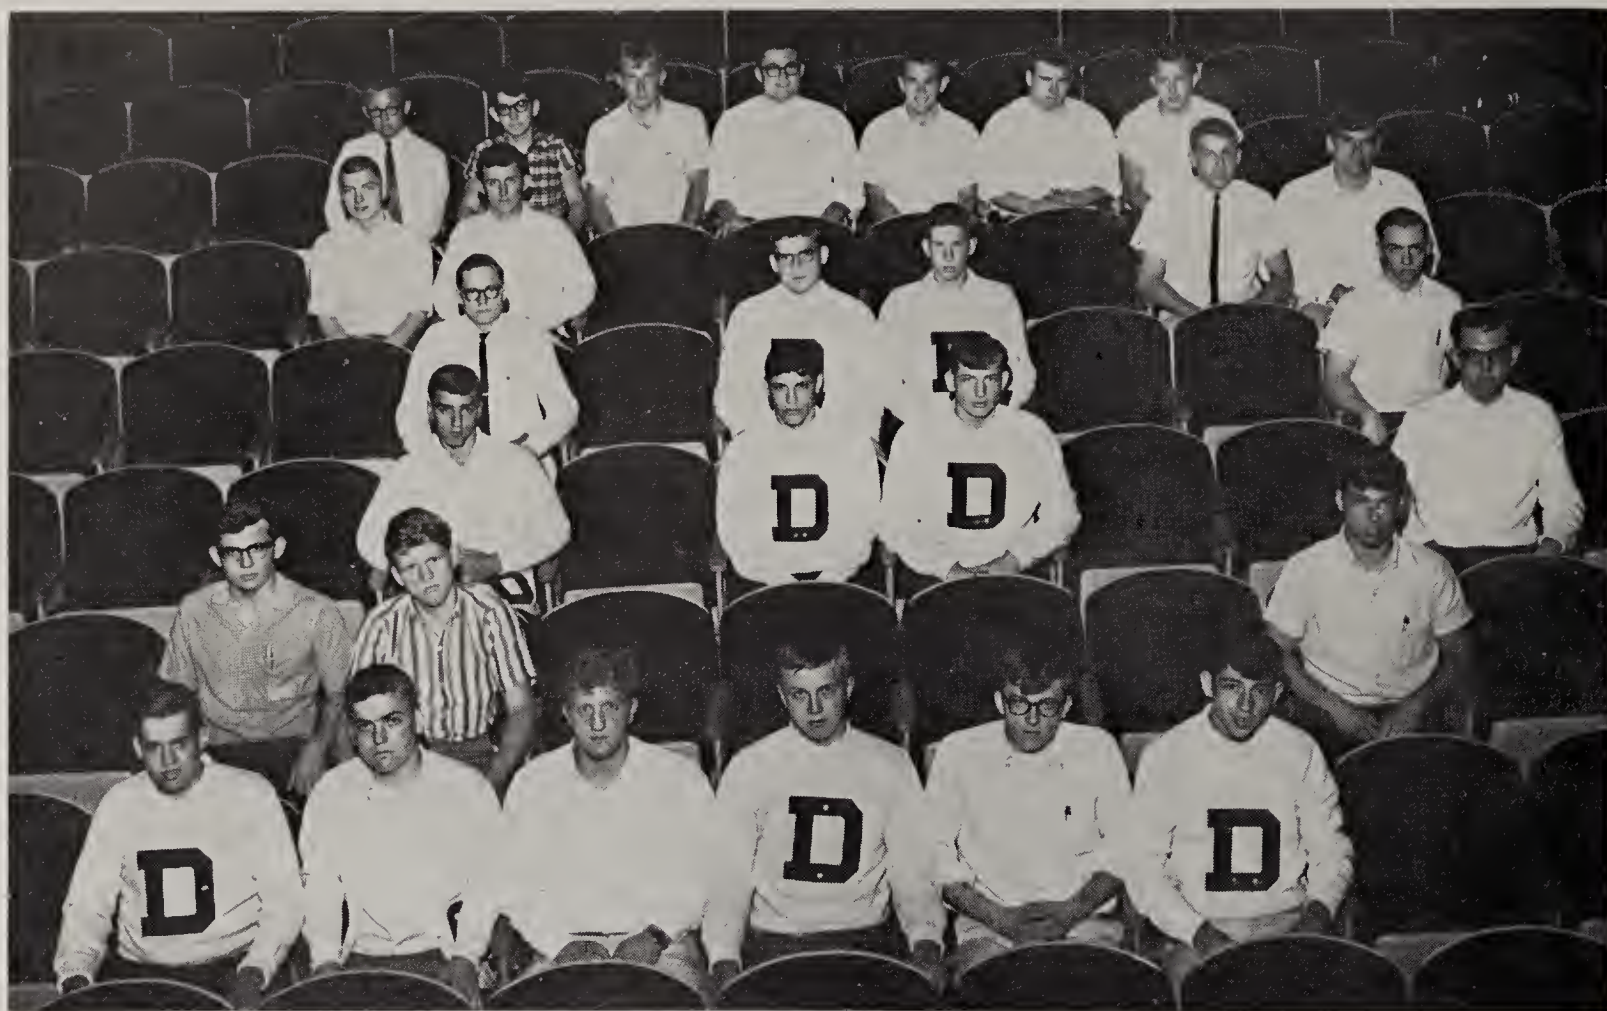

The Y-Teens opened the year with the annual induction service. The members enjoyed many interesting meetings and projects. These projects included a sponsoring of a needy family, the sale of greeting cards, and the purchasing of a Public Address System for the school. In March, the annual Mother and Daughter Tea was held. Doug Harter showed slides from his tour of Europe and related his many exciting adventures. At the conclusion of the year, everyone enjoyed the fun of the annual picnic held at Ft. Amanda.

D-CLUB

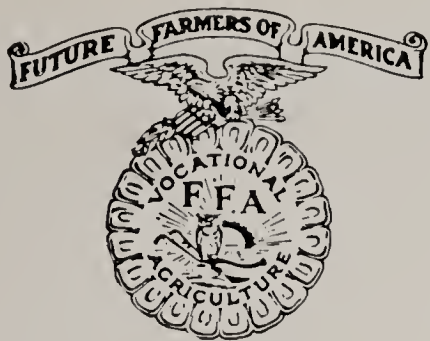

The varsity D-Club under the supervision of Mr. Koch is open to those boys who have earned a letter in either football, basketball, or baseball. The purpose of the club is to develop good sportsmanship among the boys and to create school spirit within the student body.

The D-Club is a working organization which sells ads for programs, sells programs at all athletic activities, and manages the pop concession at the home basketball games.

The D-Club also buys carnations for Mom's Night, sponsors a trip to an Ohio State football game, and sponsors a few dances through the year. The last event is the "blowout" for all those boys who participated in athletics.

"To practice brotherhood, honor rural opportunities and responsibilities, and develop those qualities of leadership which a future farmer should possess." The above words explain the purpose and aims of the members of the F.F.A.

The chapter had many successful activities during the past year. Among these were the Chicken Barbeque, Sausage and Pancake Supper, and the Parent and Son Banquet in which the boys honored their parents. The chapter participated in Judging Contests, Speaking Contest, and Parliamentary Procedure. The boys worked hard to earn money for their annual trip which was to the World's Fair and Washington, D.C.

The Delphos Jefferson Wildcat football team coached by Rudy Lucas and assisted by Calvin Fox had an unrewarding season as far as the records go. Despite being constantly hampered by injuries, the team maintained spirit and were forever striving toward perfection. Since all achievements can not be recorded in factual data, our team's terrific sportsmanship went unsung. However, the sportsmanship will remain in the hearts of the proud Wildcat fans.

The 1965 Jefferson High School Varsity Basketball team had a memorable season. The Wildcats always met their foes with a strong determination to win. Perhaps the most unforgettable match in the regular season play was their 62-56 victory over Perry. They almost upset arch-rival Elida but fell to them in the last seconds, 69-65.

As the Wildcats moved into tournament play, they dumped Bluffton, 61-54 and Harrod, 55-52, both of whom had beaten the Wildcats during regular season play. Then came the sorrowful elimination from the tourney by Ottoville.

The Freshmen team was the team of which to be proud. They went through the season undefeated, winning both the N.W.C. League Championship and the N.W.C. Tournament. They compiled a 10-0 won-lost record. We are all looking for great things from these champions in the years to come.

The Bridge to Social Development

BAND

The Delphos Jefferson Marching Band gave outstanding performances for the football lovers this year. Immediately after football season, the Concert Band began to practice for the Christmas Concert. The band entered District Contest in March and received a superior rating for their work. Their required number was "Czech Suite." At State Contest, the band received an excellent rating. Here, their required number was "Tamerlane." The band completed its season with its annual Spring Concert, which was a tremendous success.

All the band members thank Mr. Zoll for his work and guidance this year.

Director Mr. David Zoll.

CHOIR

Director Mrs. Ann Oetzel.

The 1964-65 choir made its first public appearance when they were asked to perform at a Choir Workshop at the Ohio Music Educators Association Convention. This was quite an honor for our choir since no other C-1 choir had ever been asked to sing at one of these Workshops. After this, the choir successfully presented their annual Christmas program.

Starting with the new year, the choir began to work hard for contest. Their hard work paid off as they received a superior rating at District Contest. The required number for District was "Come Let's Be Merry."

Traveling to Mansfield for State Contest, the choir was again awarded a superior rating. The required number for State was "O Thou in All The Might So Far."

The choir owes a hearty thanks to their director, Mrs. Oetzel, for directing them through the memorable year of '65.

GIRLS' GLEE CLUB

The Girls' Glee Club, under the direction of Mrs. Ann Oetzel, began its 1964-65 season by participating in the annual Christmas Concert. After this concert, they started practicing for the District Contest, which was held at Kenton. Their required number for District was "Thanks Be to God." They received a superior rating at District and again at State Contest where their required number was "Regina Coeli."

The glee club thanks Mrs. Oetzel for all her fine teaching and directing.

The Seniors' Final Tribute

The Senior class of 1965 proudly presents this issue of the Delphi, in which the editor has used "Cross Over the Bridge" as the theme to convey the bridges of education. The tinted introductory picture was made possible through the outstanding returns of the ad sales. We, the Senior class, hope that this book will renew the many happy events of the 1964-65 school year.

Left to right—Ron Heidenreich, photographer; Nancy Riggensbach, bookkeeper; Larry Baker, ads sales manager; Sally O'Bryant, book sales manager.

RE-ECHO STAFF

The Re-Echo, under the editorship of Larry Baker, Jane Koch, and Kathy Thompson, entered another phase of publishing school news this year. The work was under the excellent faculty guidance of Miss Uhrich. The school paper was published bi-weekly as a full page in the Delphos Herald. This page contained all the up-to-date minute news and the latest in photos taken by Ron Heidenreich. Completing the staff were members of the Freshmen, Sophomore, Junior, and Senior class. The editors, along with the reporters and typists, did a fine job representing Jefferson in printed form.

SENIOR DAY

Larry Baker receives first honors. Larry also received the Huffman Award.

Sally O'Bryant receives second honors.

Linda Truesdale receives third honors.

Now for the picnic!

The talent in the Senior class shines as Doug Harter plays a trumpet solo.

Vanetta Robinson entertains by singing a soprano solo.

The Senior Girls' Ensemble sings the award winning "Chim Chim Cheree."

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

Godfrey Goodall was having a difficult time bringing up his brood of six children since his wife had passed away three years before. One day he weakened and asked Henrietta Garretson, a spinster school teacher to become his wife. At first Henrietta was not accepted by the children. Gradually, however, she won them over, one by one, until even Lizzie, her most stalwart opponent, accepted her. The events leading up to this made up "The Green Bough"—the green bough of love, hope, and kinship.

The Junior Class presented their class play, "The Sign of the Moonbow," on November 20. The play was a three-act musical for which the Juniors had written the dialogue and composed the music themselves. Mr. Robert Whittington was the advisor and director of the production.

The people in the play represented the young people of today. A young couple, Marianne Bradley and David White, became engaged, and soon afterward David was drafted into the army. While David was at the war front in Viet Nam, Marianne makes plans for their wedding. Then David's parents receive a letter which said that he had been captured by the Viet Cong. But David escaped the clutches of the enemy and returned safely home. The musical was climaxed with a happy ending as David and Marianne were married.

JUNIOR-SENIOR PROM

Polynesian Paradise

This year the theme of the Junior-Senior Prom was "Polynesian Paradise." Excitement was in the air as the time for the dance drew near. The Juniors gave up many precious hours of their time to make the Prom the success that it was.

Y-TEEN DANCE

Evening in Paris

On November 29, the Y-Teen Dance was held in which everyone had a wonderful "Evening in Paris." The color scheme was blues and white, and it was elaborately decorated with typical scenes of Paris.

CARNIVAL DANCE

Something new was added to the annual P.T.A. Carnival this year—a semi-formal Carnival Dance. Doug Weaver and Sue Winters reigned as King and Queen of the Carnival. The auditorium, decorated with many large balloons, looked very festive for the occasion.

HOMECOMING

The night of October 17, 1964, will always be remembered by Queen Jeannette Martin and her attendants, Elaine Wisher and Bonnie Fry. Elaine and Bonnie, driven to the football field in a Chevrolet convertible, were escorted to their seats by co-captains Dennis Ditto and Tom Hittle. Queen Jeannette, arrived at the field in a Mercury convertible and was escorted by captain Jack DeWitt. Each member of the Homecoming Court was presented a beautiful spray of flowers. Immediately following the games, the coronation ceremonies were held prior to the semi-formal Homecoming Dance.

To Sheryl
 A real nice girl who is always smiling
 and having fun
 in Home Ec.
 Always stay
 as sweet as you are.
 Best of Luck,

Sheryl
 Oo a fellow classmate and
 with a good personality. Always keep that great smile
 and you'll go far. Keep always the fun we have had in Home Ec.

To Shirley
"The phrase,
"short and sweet"
describes you pretty well. You have a wonderful personality. Best of Luck
in your every endeavor.
